Dear Mr. Bush

On behalf of the Chief and instructors of the National Capabilities Section, Interservice Nuclear Weapons School, I wish to express my sincere thanks to those members of your organization who supported the Nuclear Weapons Orientation Non-Resident courses which were presented at the Central Intelligence Agency, 14-17 December 1976. The outstanding welcome extended to LCDR Donaworth and the members of his team was truly appreciated. As always, it is a pleasure to have this opportunity to present selected briefings to such a professionally interested and responsive audience. This visit was as beneficial to our instructors as we hope it was for your personnel. We gain a great deal through these associations in the way of instructor update information. All of your personnel were most enthusiastic in supporting our instructors in all areas.

I especially want to thank [redacted] for organizing and coordinating this visit and [redacted] for coordinating the briefing facilities. Additionally, both of these individuals devoted many hours from their busy schedules to assist the team in any way possible. I would also like to personally thank the following individuals for escorting the DIA students and team members during the visit: [redacted]

Please convey my appreciation to all of the individuals concerned for their fine support during this visit.

Sincerely

Butler T. Franklin
